ADJOURNED WITHOUT ANY AGREEMENT

New York Operators and Miners Conference Does No Good.

The Factions Talk Over Differences and Then Disperse to Meet Tomorrow.

ANTHRACITE TIE UP COMPLETE.

New York, April 4.—Sub-committees representing the anthracite operators and the mine workers of Eastern Pennsylvania held their first joint meeting here and after nearly three hours' session adjourned until 1 p. m. Thursday, without coming to an agreement.

Each side refused to make the slightest concession, and the whole question apparently is as far from a solution as it was before the conference began.

Meanwhile the tie-up of the anthracite industry remains as complete as it was yesterday without any indications that the resumption of mining will occur very soon. Notwithstanding the fruitless session and the apparently hopeless deadlock between the workmen and their employers, rumors are current that a way will be found that will enable the operators and miners to stand on common ground and settle their differences.

After the conference the following statement was given by a representative of the operators: "The conference began at noon with President E. B. Thomas, of the Lehigh Valley company, in the chair. Mitchell made a long speech, detailing why in his judgment the original demands of the miners ought to be granted. He was followed by Nichols, president of the Lackawanna-Wyoming district of the miners' union, who supported Mitchell's argument. There were other speeches by representatives of the miners. In fact that side did nearly all of the talking.

"There was no disposition on either side to recede from its original position or to accept any modification of the original demands. Mitchell's attitude indicated that the counter proposition made by the operators for a renewal of the working agreement drafted by the anthracite strike commission was not acceptable to the miners.

"On motion of Mitchell the conference adjourned until Thursday. The entire situation remains the same as before the meeting. The suspension of work in the anthracite mines will continue, pending the negotiations."

Each member of the operators' committee giving further details of the meeting, but none of them cared to say anything beyond what was contained in the statement of President Baer, who is chairman of the operators' sub-committee. He said: "We simply had a long talk which was in the nature of glittering generalities. Practically nothing was accomplished."

The members of the miners' committee including Mitchell, absolutely refused to talk of the conference. The miners' president also refused to express an opinion as to whether the situation was hopeful or discouraging from his view point.

The reports from the anthracite fields according to the labor leaders are satisfactory to them. No breaks are reported in the ranks of the miners and none are expected.

Mitchell, discussing the situation in the bituminous fields, said he had received a large number of telegrams during the day from the soft coal fields which satisfied him that the affairs of those regions are working themselves out just as he had anticipated. Thousands of men he said, returned to work today under the scale of 1903 which gives them an increase of 5.55 percent, over the wages received during the last two years.

HIT BY TIMBER.

An L. & N. R. Section Foreman
Accidentally Killed.

Elizabethtown, Ky., April 4.—John H. Yeager, a Louisville and Nashville section foreman at this place, was killed in an unusual manner this morning. He was standing near the track while a north bound freight was passing and a heavy piece of timber fell off striking Yeager in the head. He lived but five minutes. Yeager was 48 years old and leaves a widow and five children.

RUSSIA'S ELECTIONS.

Victory Went to Class Known As Constitutional Democrats.

St. Petersburg, April 4.—It is conceded that the radical tide has swept to victory every one of the 160 constitutional Democratic electors.

The Russkoe Gosudarstvo, Witte's newspaper organ, which admits the victory of the constitutional Democrats, declares that Witte will hold on to the premiership until the convening of the parliament and that his resignation then will depend on the attitude of Emperor Nicholas.

There is an intimation that no matter what the political complexion of the parliament nobody who does not possess the fullest confidence of his majesty will be selected as premier.

Big Appropriation to Fight White Plague.

Des Moines, Iowa, April 4.—The legislature has appropriated $50,000 to begin the erection of a tuberculosis hospital and prosecution of a general educational campaign for checking the disease in Iowa. Medical men in Iowa have been fighting for several years for such an enactment. The location of the institution is left to the state board of control.

BADGER VETERANS IN THE CITY TODAY

Are Enroute To Shiloh Park To Dedicate State Monument.

Governor Davidson Is in the Party of Ninety—Here Few Hours Only.

DEDICATION SATURDAY MORN.

Governor Davidson, of Wisconsin, heading a party of ninety veterans of the civil war from his state, was in the city for a few hours this afternoon, en route to, Shiloh park, where they will dedicate the monument just erected by the state of Wisconsin in honor of the men from that state who fell in the battle of Shiloh.

The party came down by rail arriving on the I. C. this afternoon, and took passage for Shiloh on the Saltville, which leaves at 6 this afternoon. The dedicatory ceremonies will be held Saturday morning. Governor Davidson will present the monument to the federal government and Col. Cornelius Cadle, of Cincinnati chairman of the Shiloh National park commission, by direction of Secretary of War Taft, will receive it for the government.

The monument cost $14,000 and is one of the handsomest in the park. Capt. Madgeburg, president of the Wisconsin state commission, is in the party as are a number of the most prominent citizens of the Badger state. They will return, leaving the park Saturday afternoon, and be in the city Monday afternoon.

Col. Cornelius Cadle, of Cincinnati, president of the Shiloh National park commission, is in the city at the Palmer, and he and Major J. H. Ashcraft, who is a member of the national commission, will join the Wisconsin party here. General Basil Duke, of Louisville, who is the other member of the commission, will join the party at Danville.

Wisconsin had three regiments in the battle of Shiloh, and they distinguished themselves by their valorous conduct. Major Reed of Chicago, historian and secretary of the commission, is at Shiloh where his duties require his presence most of the time, and Col. Cadle, Gen. Duke and Major Ashcraft will remain there about a week.

SPEAKS ON RATE AMENDMENT.

But Declines to Answer Queries Regarding White House Confab.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—Senator Long, of Kansas, Tuesday spoke at length in the senate in support of the house railroad rate bill, and his speech was taken advantage of by a number of senators to make inquiry concerning the recent conference at the White House, in which the Long amendment was considered, if not originated.

The controversy was participated in by Foraker, Allison, Aldrich, Bailey and Bacon. Long assumed the complete responsibility for the amendment, but both he and Allison declined to divulge the proceedings of the conference.

GETS FORTUNE FROM ENGLAND

The Hostler at Craig House Inherits Big Money.

Death of Only Blood Relative Makes Him the Possessor of Small Fortune.

FRED OSWIN THE LUCKY MAN.

A letter from England, his native country, bearing a dual mission of sadness and pleasure reached Frederick Oswin, an aged hostler in the employ of the Craig Hotel at Fifth and Jefferson streets, yesterday. The letter brought news of the death of his aunt the last blood relative he has on earth; and at the same time telling of his coming into her fortune, amounting to not less than $1,500, which means a great deal to the aged Englishman.

Oswin was seen this morning by a Sun reporter, and his story is an interesting one, beaming here and there with gladness over his good fortune, only to be thrown into the chaos of gloom at the next turn of the wheel.

The aged hostler is of good birth and excellent education. He was born in England and years ago, when but a young man and in the prime of young manhood, came to this country to seek success and fortune. He first lived in New York, working as a salesman, and from year to year thrived. He became in heart an American, and renounced his allegiance to the queen shortly after coming to this country, and within the required time was formally naturalized.

Oswin joined the United States cavalry and made an excellent soldier. It was during his service in the cavalry that the god of love paid him a visit and he married. A few short years of wedded bliss marked another passage of sunshine in his career, but with his wife's death which came a few years later, he lost interest in everything and drifted towards the West.

Three years ago, sick and weary, he landed in Paducah, coming from St. Louis. He had at this time been out of the government service five years, and like hundreds of others who could not bear their misfortunes with a brave front, took to artificial means of elevating his spirits, and his present condition, it is said, is due entirely to this one mistake.

Mrs. Craig, proprietor of the Craig House, gave Oswin employment after his illness and he has been with her ever since. His duties are manifold; he is the stable superintendent, man about the house, and has made his services valuable to the extreme.

Two years ago Oswin was called upon to sign certain papers bearing on matters of importance to his mother and "aunt in England. A short time after his mother died and Oswin's only surviving relative was his aunt, Mrs. Hannah Painter.

Yesterday a letter came announcing her death, and it also brought the news that Oswin had inherited her small fortune of not less than $1,500—possibly more.

"I do not know exactly how much money I shall get," he stated, "but am sure it is not less than $1,500. It may be more, and I will receive another letter next Tuesday giving more definite information. I have made no preparations for my fortune other than a possible trip to Canada.

"No, I think I shall not remain in Paducah but if I go to Canada at all, will more than likely take up my permanent residence there."

Oswin is past 50 years but still active. His illness pulled him down considerably. He is a man of more than ordinary intelligence, having received an excellent education in England. Oswin is sharing the news of his good fortune with the numerous boarders at the hotel. He is a popular attaché of the hostelry, and everyone is glad to see him placed in a position where he may take his rightful stand once again among mankind.

Guests At White House.

Washington, D. C., April 4.—President Roosevelt gave a dinner at the White House last night in honor of the governor of Canada and Countess Gray and their party who are sojourning in this country. They are overnight guests of the president and will remain in the city for several days and have been entertained by the British ambassador and Lady Durand and other friends.

MURRAY COURTHOUSE BURNED LAST NIGHT

Destruction Attributed to Work of an Incendiary.

When Blaze Was Discovered Was in Roof and Checking it Beyond Question.

ABOUT ALL RECORDS LOST

It begins to look like Murray might have a fire bug. First the big school building was mysteriously burned, there, and only last week, the block of houses on the west side of the square, and now the county court house. The destruction of the latter building may have more significance than attaches to the usual work of a fire bug, but it is only an idea. Certainly the several fires justify the suspicion of the work of some designing person, if not several.

The fire which burned the courthouse was discovered about 7:30 o'clock last night by persons passing the building. The blaze seemed to have originated under the roof or on upper floor. Smoke was pouring out of the crevices in the roof in great volumes and the bucket brigade was powerless to prevent the fire spreading and consuming the building. The roof broke out in a mass of flames and the spectators could but stand and look, the matter of saving records being out of the question with the burning brands from the roof falling inside the building in dangerous sizes, and the roof itself ready at any moment to crush down. The general opinion in Murray is that the fire was incendiary, as there were no fires in the building yesterday.

Practically all the records of the county were destroyed with the building. This fact will result in much annoyance especially because of the loss of many deeds and similar papers of importance.

A small one-story brick stood on the square just to the east of the court house which was used as sheriff's office and also as a law office. This did not burn but was saved with no little trouble.

The county jail was not located on the square but in another part of the place.

The building burned was erected in 1850 when the county seat was removed from Wadesboro, the early county seat for most of all of the Purchase counties. It was a two-story brick, with shingle roof. The roof was cone-shaped and capped by small tower or cupola. The architecture of the building was very plain, and so was its finish. Though originally a substantial building it had creened some and there were those who oft predicted that in some storm it would fall. On the lower floor was the court room and two offices and on the second floor the several main offices other than the sheriff's office. The county school superintendent's office was in the block burned only last Saturday night on the west side of the square. Only stoves were used to heat the building, these being largely if not entirely for wood.

The county has long needed a new courthouse but was delaying building till other debts, particularly the railroad debt, was paid off.

Some noted cases have been tried in the burned building, and many sensational incidents happened there in, as result of law suits, such as shootings, suicides, etc.

Some of the oldest furniture perhaps to be found in the state was destroyed with this building. In the office of the circuit court clerk was a locker for blanks, etc., a cubard-like case, which was used in the old courthouse when the county seat was in Wadesboro. This was a hand-made piece of furniture and a first-class piece of work in spite of its weight, it being very substantial though not overly large. This case was highly prized by the court officials, especially because of its age and somewhat also because of the writing or marks within which rather bore proof of its age and its use in the old courthouse.

As a whole there was perhaps no building in this end of the state which was in all respects a more significant landmark than the Calloway county courthouse and the people of the Purchase counties, many of whom knew the old building well and had oft been within its walls, will share with the people of Calloway in its loss even though it had well served its usefulness.

The Sun had a phone talk with

Mr. Perry Malone, of Murray, just before noon and obtained some additional facts regarding the fire from him: Mr. Malone says there is no doubt but that the fire started in the attic of the building and that, as is the universal opinion, the building was fired by an incendiary, as said above. He says that there were no vaults in the building and that much of the county records were lost, but that out of the county clerk's office some important books and records were rescued. Many of the books also in the county judge's office were saved, though this was not known earlier. Some friends had removed them for safe keeping and did not report the fact until later. Few of the books in the circuit court clerk's office were saved, among the valuables being lost being the old indictments and the records of all the courts of the county for 82 years past.

Yesterday the county's fiscal court convened regularly and was to have continued routine work today. This morning it met to consider more important business than expected, this being preparation for a place where in the circuit court, which convenes next Monday, can meet and also for the erection of a new courthouse at the earliest day possible. The board will dispose of these matters in some way ere it adjourns.

GUNBOAT PADUCAH MAY VISIT US.

Council Will Make Request For Sometime This Year.

City to Assist in Raising Funds to Buy the Silver Service.

COMMITTEE HAS MATTER NOW

At the council meeting Monday night Mayor Yeiser suggested that the council appoint a committee from that board to meet the committee from the aldermen and take up the matter of giving something toward the fund being raised by private subscriptions with which to purchase a silver service for the gunboat Paducah. The mayor, also, suggested that the secretary of the navy be petitioned to detail the gunboat to come to Paducah to receive the service, and this will be done, and the boat will probably come to Paducah this year.

When the secretary was requested last fall to allow the boat to come to Paducah, it had been detailed for active service and could not be spared, but the promise was given that some time this year she would be allowed to come, so the matter will be taken up again to ascertain when it will be.

It is proposed to give the Paducah a silver service costing about $1500. About $600 has already been subscribed, and the city will probably give $500, so the other $400 should be easily secured.

It is quite a compliment to Paducah, that a gunboat has been named for it, and the citizens should show their appreciation of it by donating for the fund. The Commercial club has been assisting in raising the fund and will receive subscriptions at any time.

The gunboat Paducah is one of the very latest pattern boats in the navy, and has already tasted powder, having had a little excitement down about Hayti a few weeks ago. She is very speedy, and highly esteemed by the navy officials.

Fiscal Court Refuses to Contribute to Commercial Club For County

The fiscal court this morning turned down the Commercial club's petition asking for $1,500 from the county to aid the club in its work for the county. Mr. H. C. Rhodes, and Mr. W. P. Hummel, first vice president and second vice president, and Mr. Ben Weille, treasurer of the club, and Attorney Berry addressed the court, in presenting the petition, and County Judge Lightfoot, also, addressed the court in favor of the request.

The magistrates cast two votes, the first time it being a tie, but, on the second ballot, Magistrates Emery, Knott, Lane, Broadfoot and Gholson voted against it, defeating the resolution. Judge Lightfoot urged a re-

DEATH OF NOTABLE EUROPEANS

Lens, France, April 4.—The gangs which have been exploring the Sallu mines, adjoining the Courrier since last Friday, when 13 miners entombed 20 days, were taken out, today came upon one other miner still alive, and he was quickly brought to the surface. It is said sounds of knocking can be heard in other parts of the pit so additional rescuers have been hurried below to assist in exploring mine. It is just reported here that nine other miners have been rescued, but so far only one has been brought to the surface.

August Perthen was the man rescued from the wrecked mines today. He is able to tell how he suffered and tells more than the men rescued last week. He confesses that when the food became exhausted the miners turned to cannibals and devoured the bodies of two apprentices found in the mines.

Notable Europeans Die.

Berlin, April 4.—Prince William, of Schaumburg, Lippe, died this morning.

London, April 4.—A dispatch from Copenhagen says that Princess Louise, of Schaumburg, Lippe, daughter of King Frederick of Denmark, died this morning half an hour after her father-in-law, Prince William, expired. Both were staying in the castle at Nachod Bohemia.

An Aeronaut Missing.

Fire Island, N. Y., April 4.—A large balloon all complete, was found on the beach last night. This morning it was learned Paul Nocquet, a daring French aeronaut, made an ascension yesterday afternoon in a specially constructed balloon from Central Union Gas Works, in the Bronx. He was last seen sailing eastward along Long Island. No news has yet been received from Nocquet.

Many Red Men in a Derailment.

Richmond, Ind., April 4.—By a cave-in this morning on the Cincinnati, Chicago and Louisville track, on Main street, a train bearing one hundred and fifteen Red Men, from a district meeting of the order at Rushville, was precipitated down embankment. Seven of the passengers were seriously injured.

For a while there was the greatest consternation among the great crowd and it was thought many deaths must have resulted.

Somerset, Ky., April 4.—Sixty Chesapeake and Ohio round house laborers went on a strike this morning demanding higher wages.

Miners Hope to Conciliate Operators.

New York, April 4.—The anthracite miners' scale committee met today to prepare plans to bring about a settlement of the differences in the hard coal fields. It is understood certain demands which the operators have already refused will either be eliminated or so modified the operators will accept without feeling they have stultified themselves in their present position of conceding anything.

consideration, as did also Mr. Weille, but the board refused to do so.

In view of the efforts being made by the club for the county the refusal of this request is deplored by the members of the club, and will hamper it a good deal in the plans it had for work for the county, it is said.

LATER—This afternoon the board made an attempt to reconsider its action, but could not do so. Then the committee from the Commercial club asked to withdraw its request and this was granted. The committee said it did not wish the court to be placed on record as being against its work and the court decided to expunge the whole matter.

THE FOURTH VICE- PRESIDENT HERE

W. J. Harahan in The City Today With Higher Officials.Yardmaster Miller Gets Trainmas-tership—Changes in Local
I. C. Circles.

NEWS OF THE RAILROADS

W. J. Harahan, fourth vice president of the I. C. railroad, and party, passed through Paducah this morning en route to Louisville from Cairo. The party came here in a special train and left on the noon train for an inspection of the Louisville division.

Engine No. 205 with one coach was sent to Cairo at 8:30 o'clock this morning running as a special. It was in charge of Engineer Rafferty and Conductor Tonks, and arrived on return trip from Cairo between 10 and 11 o'clock.

The officials made a hasty inspection of the local terminals and shops and took the noon train to Louisville. The entire division will be inspected and the party will also go on the Nashville division, it is said.

Besides Fourth Vice President Harahan, three other high officials were in the party. They are I. G. Rawn, general manager; Wm. Renshaw, general superintendent of machinery and General Storekeeper Taylor.

It is probable that the party will pass through Paducah again in a day or two, as Mr. Renshaw is expected to make a thorough inspection of the local shops.

New Yardmaster.

W. R. Miller, assistant general yardmaster of the local I. C., has resigned his position effective at once, and gone to Mobile, Ala., to accept a very responsible position. His resignation here resulted in the showing up of subordinates in the yard department, and several deserving employees get promotions.

Yardmaster Miller has received an appointment as trainmaster for the Southern Railroad company, at Mobile and has gone to accept the new position. He is an old experienced railroad man and handled the east and made numerous friends local yards admirably. He had been here several years, coming from the who will be pleased to learn of his rise.

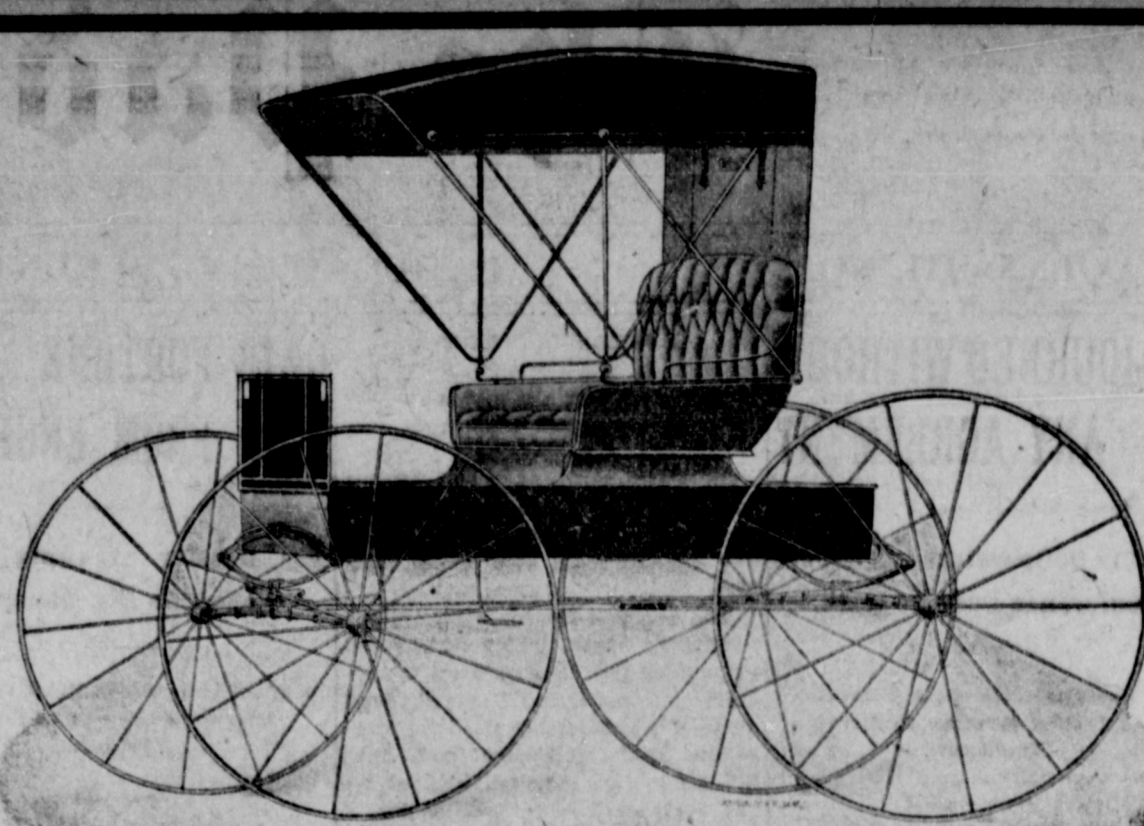

Miller is succeeded by E. A. Maple, who has been night yardmaster, and Maple is succeeded by C. E. Gray, chief clerk in General Yardmaster G. M. Stonebreaker's office. Gray is succeeded by Mr. T. B. Pugh who has been in the clerical department of the yardmaster's office.

This necessitates complete change-ups in the minor attaches, and is effective at once.

This is the first complete change-up in local railroad circles in several years.

Dr. J. T. Fort, formerly of the city, but now resident physician for the I. C. at Louisville, was in the city today renewing old acquaintance. He has been in Chicago and is merely passing through today. He has been with the I. C. eight years and is prominent in Louisville.

The Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railway is receiving bids for 500 standard 36-foot 60,000 pounds capacity box cars, and will in the near future commence on an order of 500 standard 36-foot 80,000 pounds

AN APPEAL FOR JIM HOWARD'S FAMILY

Responding to an urgent appeal made by republicans and democrats alike, The Sun presents a plain statement of fact in regard to James B. Howard's stricken family.

James B. Howard is now confined in the penitentiary, where he will serve a life sentence, having been convicted of the murder of William Goebel, five years ago.

Mrs. James B. Howard and her three little children are the innocent victims of the predicament Mr. Howard finds himself placed in by process of law. For five years this heroic woman has labored unceasingly, and never without hope, to secure a vindication for her husband. Their little home has been swept into the legal maelstrom, and today they are dependent on charity for the clothes they wear, and even for the bread they eat.

This condition will not be permitted to remain as long as there are tender hearts in Old Kentucky. This loyal wife has, by a devotion typical of Southern womanhood, touched the finest instincts of the human race. Facing the darkest gloom, from day to day, she has presented to a devoted husband a smiling and undimmed optimism that has undoubtedly braced him for the heavy ordeal he has undergone.

These three children are winsome children—for both the father and mother are persons of education and refinement. They are denied a home, an opportunity to acquire knowledge, a right to a father's care and protection.

Is it not a worthy case? Think as you may of the guilt or innocence of Jim Howard, here are helpless beings cast adrift on a world none too sympathetic, unless aroused to the cry of urgent want.

The Sun will acknowledge receipt of all money sent to it for "The Mrs. James B. Howard Fund."

A dime, a dollar a hundred dollars, or any amount, given in such a cause, will be "bread cast upon the waters," and such, the Great Father assures us "will come back an hundredfold."

"Live or die" writes Sarah G. Butts, the popular school teacher of White Plains, Va., "I feel sure death is no worse than the pains I suffered periodically. My trouble was a female disorder of the severest kind. I had taken so many medicines without relief that I was almost sunk in despair. Four bottles of Cardui gave me relief, and I am stronger now than in fifteen years. Cardui is certainly a panacea for female troubles. Learn the Cause of Daily Woes and End Them.

When the back aches and throbs. When house work is torture. When night brings no rest or sleep. When urinary disorders set in. Women's lot is a weary one. There is a way to escape these woes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure such ills. Have cured women here in Paducah.

This is one Paducah woman's testimony:

Mrs. Martha Hamilton, of 610 Tennessee street, says: "If I contracted a cold which settled in my kidneys, it brought on a severe attack of inflammation of the kidneys and ever afterwards I was subject to pain across my back, although I used every precaution to prevent it. When these attacks were at their height I was prostrated and had to remain in bed some time. One day I noticed Doan's Kidney Pills advertised for just such conditions as mine. It occurred to me that they might do me some good, so I procured a box at Alvey & List's drug store. They helped me from the start. The dull aching across the small of my back finally disappeared, the pain in my muscles and legs disappeared and dizziness which accompanied it left, and since I have been only too pleased to tell friends and acquaintances about the result I obtained from using Doan's Kidney Pills."

SIRE TO SON

THE LATTER LIKE FORMER WAS A BANK THIEF.

The Revelations Developed in Investigation of the Charges Against J. A. Turney.

New York, April 4.—Sensational developments in connection with the theft of $34,000 by Joseph A. Turney, note teller of the National bank of North America, was made chief among which was the authenticated statement that Turney's father, Joseph L. Turney, twenty-nine years ago stole $106,000 from the same institution, which by the way was one of the many suppressed scandals in banking circles.

Experts are still at work upon the bank's books and it was persistently rumored today that Turney's speculations would run much higher than the amount published and that another arrest was expected in connection with the case. It was stated that an accomplice—an employee in the bank, was implicated in Turney's supplementary confession, but both of these statements are refuted by Alfred H. Curtis, the president, and Cashier Edward Wire.

Turney's father, who died three years ago, stole $106,000 from the Bank of North America in 1877, at which time the younger Turney was an errand boy in the institution. He reimbursed the bank to the extent of $6,000 and the directors of the bank, all of whom are now dead, in order to prevent a scandal and possible run, chipped in and made good the remaining $100,000. William Dowd, who was vice president of the New York Clearing House, was president of the bank at the time.

Turney when brought from the Tombs prison was arraigned in court on a charge of forgery in the third degree. The technical charge is that he made false entry of four checks. He waived examination to await the action of the grand jury and it is expected that indictments for grand larceny as well as forgery will be returned.

The identity of the woman who has figured in the case as "Edna" was disclosed today. She is a Miss Edna Leonard, of West Forty-sixth street, who keeps a boarding house. When seen today, Miss Leonard said:

"My name has been dragged into this case for no reason at all. I know nothing about Mr. Turney's bank affairs."

The school board met last night and re-elected all the old principals, received a proposition from a real estate dealer to take an option on Longfellow property, adopted a stringent course in regard to discipline in teachers and pupils and transacted a lot of other business. The session lasted from 8 o'clock until after 10 and was interesting throughout. Four members, Trustees Barnes, Morrison, Troutman and Downs, were absent.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and adopted.

The credentials of Trustee W. T. Byrd were presented, accepted and Mr. Byrd took his seat. He was re-elected at the last meeting, having been declared disqualified by his holding the office of deputy county clerk at the same time he qualified as a school board member.

The report of Supt. C. M. Lieb was filed.

He reported the inauguration of the identification card for school children, necessary to secure them the half fare privilege on street cars. He suggested the appropriation of money by the board for the purpose of establishing school libraries, giving excellent argument for the establishment of them. Mr. Lieb also recommended the re-election of principals. The report was received and filed.

The finance committee's report, showing a balance of $7,218.21 on hand at the close of March, was received and filed.

The payroll amounting to $4,407.85 and miscellaneous bills amounting to $605.01 were allowed.

A report of the building committee on the work done during March by Supt. of Buildings Fred Hoyer, was received and filed.

Colonel R. G. Caldwell was permitted to speak. He stated that he learned the Longfellow building at Fifth street and Kentucky avenue was for sale, and that he was negotiating with eastern capitalists with view of securing a site suitable for the location of an office building and that he had his eye on this property. Col. Caldwell stated that he desired a 90 day option on the property and expressed his opinion favorable to a quick sale if he could get a reasonable price.

The board seemed unanimous in the idea that $26,000 was a fair price but the board wanted to fix a shorter option.

Col. Caldwell stated that he could not entertain such a price, as it was too high; but that he was willing to take the property and sell, if possible on commission.

He also stated that he expected to pay for the option, but did not want one for less than ninety days. As to the value of the property, including the building, which will be torn down if bought, he thought it worth $22,500, $150 a front foot. He proposed to meet a committee and sign a contract to sell for as much as $25,000 on a 2-1-2 per cent commission.

There was much discussion relative to the commission proposition, and the matter was settled by the appointment of a committee to confer with Mr. Caldwell, or any other real estate agent, to report back to the board.

Trustees Beckenbaugh, Walston and Pettey were appointed by the chair on this committee.

Trustee Walston stated that the committee on examination and course of study had prepared a recommendation to elect principals last night, but did not think it wise to elect with only eight members present. The committee report, recommending the re-election of all the principals now in service, was presented. The report stated that some little objection had been raised against one principal, but that this had all been settled as far as the committee, which had investigated thoroughly, was concerned.

Supt. Lieb stated that several principals had offers to go elsewhere and that if the board did not elect at once, it might mean vacancies in local school ranks, and as vacancies are hard to fill, it might prove a serious detriment to the school. This is why he suggested the immediate election.

As a compromise it was suggested to defer the election of J. S. Ragsdale until the investigation had been completed.

The motion to defer the election was lost and the election entered into. Trustee Beckenbaugh was excused from voting in the election.

The matter of complaints against Prof. S. J. Ragsdale will be taken up, and if any charges are sustained he can be dismissed, or any other attaché of the school. This was one proviso of the election.

The salaries of principals were left as they are at present.

Several matters pertaining to sanitation at the High school and Lee building were referred to the sanitary committee.

A suggestion to connect the Lee school at Fourth and Ohio streets with sanitary sewers was also referred to the committee.

The board did not desire to go to the expense of connecting up the sewers at the latter building, as the property is for sale, and may be sold this spring, but the health of the children could not be sacrificed for the economy and if the defect can not be otherwise remedied the connections will be made.

The matter of painting the Garfield, Lincoln and Lee buildings' roofs was deferred.

The matter of setting aside an appropriation for a library in each school was referred.

The motion to have the Paducah Construction company to remedy defects in the plastering at McKinley school before a balance of $150 is paid the firm, was adopted.

An invitation to the board from the local I. O. O. F. to participate in the parade April 26, was accepted and thanks extended.

It was ordered that a half session be held on April 26, the day of the Interstate I. O. O. F. meeting.

A resolution was adopted by the board which will have a tendency to stop the circulation of obscene literature, etc. The resolution was for the board to request the city boards to pass ordinances fixing a penalty for any firm advertising by obscene or vulgar literature. It seemed that some obscene literature had gotten into the hands of the school children.

The offer of a month's free test of a new globe for teaching geography in the primary grade was accepted. The manufacturers hope to sell a number of the globes to the schools.

The report of Engineer Washington stating that Mrs. Kelley, owning property adjoining the High school, was encroaching on the property of the board. She has a model bay window setting out from her property. The window was ordered removed as soon as possible.

Several bills for pupils' tuition were referred to the city solicitor for collection.

Supt. C. M. Lieb stated that he was looking after the Rowlandtown school situation even this far ahead and thought some action should be taken towards building a school in that section at once. The school situation in this locality is serious and the school is an absolute necessity. There are many new pupils in this constantly growing section and Mr. Lieb suggested the matter be referred to a committee to act at once.

Supt. Lieb stated that he had a grievance to register against tardy teachers; that 15 tardies had been tallied against teachers so far this month and something should be done at once. Two offenses are marked among colored teachers and six in the High school, among white tutors, one being tardy four times. This sets a bad example for the pupils they are teaching.

There is a rule in effect suspending pupils for four tardy marks a month, and one deducting from a quarter to a whole day in service from the teachers as a fine. Secretary Pitcher stated he was enforcing this rule in a way but would look after it more closely hereafter.

The resignation of Miss Bertha Kettler, teacher in the Franklin school, was accepted.

The city solicitor was ordered to make a deed to some Mechanicsburg property from the city to the school board to enable the board to complete a sale of the property.

On motion the board adjourned.

EDISON FINDS SECRET

SOUGHT FOR AGES

The Discovery May be as Valuable as Gold

Cobalt to Be Employed in Apparatus for Storing Electricity in Batteries.

WILL CHEAPEN THE AUTOS

New York, April 4.—The genius of Edison has brought forth another marvel in connection with automobile and which, it is likely, will work a revolution in the manufacture of horseless vehicles and other apparatus in which the storage of electrical energy, is necessary.

Incidentally it has practically revealed the secret for which the alchemists sought in vain—the art of converting the baser metals—as it has established for a metal hitherto little used in commerce a market in which it is likely to eventually become almost as valuable as gold.

Another feature of the discovery is the fact that it delivers a hard blow at the smelter trust and certain persons high in the Standard Oil trust, who have been seeking another big monopoly in the products of the earth and who almost had obtained it. In addition to all that, it has opened up a comparatively unexploited portion of the great northwest and has made in a night a millionaire of several poor miners.

The latest handiwork of Edison is an electric storage battery in which cobalt has been employed instead of lead or nickel. Never before had any one of great chemists or electrical engineers dreamed of using cobalt. How Edison hit on the idea is not disclosed and the secret is not to be revealed until the inventor returns to his laboratory in about two weeks from Florida, where he is recuperating.

Before he left for the south, six weeks ago, Edison intimated that he had made a discovery as to cobalt. In consequence the chemical and electrical world is aroused and has been awaiting details.

It was learned today that Edison had been experimenting a long time with cobalt, and before he left Orange he had manufactured and employed in automobiles in his grounds several batteries made with that metal. To what extent, however, those batteries excel the present land battery, or even Mr. Edison's improved nickel battery, could not be ascertained. All Mr. Edison's assistants have been sworn to secrecy.

The fact that Edison intended to employ vast quantities of cobalt for some mysterious purpose was learned a few days ago, when news that his representative, Horace W. Willson, had purchased a mine of that ore on the Montreal river near Halleyburg, Ont. and was offering 35 cents a pound for the hitherto neglected ore, delivered in New York. Thirty-five cents a pound means $70 a ton on a ten per cent. ore and $140 a ton on a 20 per cent ore, a class not infrequently found.

Cobalt is similar to nickel. Hitherto it has been used only for producing the beautiful tint seen in porcelains and glass. The smelter trust, whose experts alone know the secret of its reproduction for that purpose, has controlled the output and has maintained the price by limiting the supply.

In connection with the discovery of the latter mines there is a strange and interesting history which holds a striking moral for monopolies. The discovery was due directly to the peoples' fight for municipal ownership.

The Ross government which then was in power in Ontario and which was owned by railroad interests, became frightened by the growing sentiment for public control of utilities and highways. It was decided to build a railroad with government funds.

A route from North Bay, on the Canadian Pacific main line, leading into the wilderness was selected in the hope that such a road would be a heavy burden on the people. In constructing the line, however, was struck what undoubtedly is the greatest cobalt mine, containing probably the richest silver deposits in the world. The road now is destined to be one of the most profitable in the country.

With Edison's discovery the rush to that section of the northwest this year is likely to surpass the early rush to the Klondike.

New Lodge to Be Organized Will Increase Number to 550.

Three distinct and separate lodges, aggregating a membership of fully 550, will be the forces representing Paducah Odd Fellows to welcome the thousands of visitors who will come to Paducah April 26th to attend the Interstate I. O. O. F. meeting. There will be more Odd Fellows in the Paducah tanks, it need hardly be said, than any other visiting body from one town, and the lodgemen are proud of the showing they will make.

All arrangements for the installation of a new lodge in Mechanicsburg have about been completed, and will be finally wound up Friday night. The full program of installation will be arranged on that night and the installation will take place Wednesday, the 11th. Mr. O. T. Anderson, of the city, has been selected as installing officer. There will be no features connected with the ceremonies.

The new lodge already has 40 members, but by the 26th of April the number will be 75, it is expected. This will swell the local Odd Fellows' number high. Mungum lodge has 235, Ingleside 240, and with 75 for the new lodge will make 550 members.

A big banquet will follow the installation Wednesday.

Daily Thought.

"The life that would be fruitful needs shower as well as sunshine."

Too many of the press boys, whom Senator Depew used to twit with his wit while favoring the fraternity with interviews, are seemingly disposed to take advantage of his present condition to shoot paper wads, with pins hidden in them, at the old veteran. The senator's bright after-dinner speeches may have given way to the twaddle of old age, etc., as some are "squibbling," but he has only come to that affliction which follows the passing of the days of youth and strength into old age and weakness, of a strong mind into a feeble one, as thousands of others have done and thousands of others will do. There will no doubt come a day soon when the truth will have to be written concerning the senior senator from New York, and the "paper wads" now being thrown at him would not compare creditably if printed in parallel. Go after the liver game, boys, and let the senator's seduction be a pleasant one in all respects so far as you are concerned.

Chicago is to at once take a front place in the efforts being made by many cities to fight down and drive out the ravages of tuberculosis. The Garden City is to have an institute where there is to be exhibitions to educate all as to what tuberculosis is, what are its causes, how it can be avoided or prevented, etc., and which will give free treatment to all sufferers from the fell destroyer. The institute is to be a complete scientific institution in all respects and while a credit to the Garden City will no doubt do great good to all who seek its benefits. The ordinance now before the council of this city is a step along the line of work of Chicago's institute, but will not go so far. It will do good, however, and will no doubt prove the foundation stone to an institution, an open air camp for patients, and other resulting good to Paducah and the people of this section.

The legislature of New York, the work of the investigating committees and the courts will have failed to accomplish much in the minds of the policy holders if the insurance companies are not made to sell only policies which are so plain in their meaning that when a claim is collectable it will not take the bar of any city and the benches of several courts to decide what is due. The greatest cause for complaining against the big insurance companies has been the selling of policies which were not intended to be clear and which are not at all clear in fact.

Tennessee democrats are indulging in two canvasses for political honors—that of United States senator and for governor—which promises to blow the republican party much good. The people of the Volunteer state can't and won't endorse such men as the contestants declare their opponents to be and are all but proving them to be. It has been a long time since Tennessee had such another canvass in which tongue rather than brain seemed the one thing necessary.

The fiscal court in denying the Commercial club's petition, asking that the county donate $1,500 to the club, made a regrettable error. The county of McCracken is considered in all the schemes of the Commercial club, and is a recipient of the fruits of its work. Announcement will be made this week of the consummation of one of its plans for the county that would compensate the county for a dozen donations like the one asked for. The members of the court from the county district unfortunately seem to get on the wrong side of every proposition originating in the city, which is deplorable. The city pays the greater part of the county taxes and should receive the proper consideration in view of that fact.

"Wizard" Edison is to the front with another world astonishing discovery. It is the use of cobalt in connection with an electric storage battery and promises to so cheapen the effectiveness and usefulness of such batteries as to greatly lessen the cost of automobiles and make it possible for a wider use of such vehicles. It is said the discovery in question is as valuable as gold, which is enough, provided the quantity of gold is not a short one.

It is clear that Old Probs was so overworked in dishing out bad weather in March is why he has failed to do his usual sprinkling acts this month. Doubtless after he is fully rested he will make amends with a few nice rains and perhaps throw in a "soaker" or two for good measure.

Judge Lightfoot is to be commended for his recommendations to the fiscal court that it give the Commercial club $1,500 for its work. He appreciates the work that is being done, and is found willing to assist at all times in any effort he can. The court should have shown the same spirit.

The fiscal court raised the appropriation for county roads three cents, and the good work of extending the gravel roads will go on. Many taxpayers wanted the apportionment increased five cents, but the three cents is satisfactory. It means $3,900 more for the road fund.

It is proposed to put $10,000,000 in a battleship. If nothing could sink such a costly ship the expenditure contemplated should sink the scheme.

There is much in the rate bill which classifies it as the great bill. Certainly it is the biggest thing which is just now before congress.

One coal strike and many miners are out. Mitchell as umpire did the main part of the work.

There is nothing in talking reform but much in reforming the talk.

The Cry for Workers.

(From Louisville Commercial.)
Not only from the wheat fields of the West, but from the cities and farmhouses of the East, arises the cry for more laborers. Never had Uncle Sam so much to do for his sons. Work and play he has had for all. New England is at a standstill for want of men. Public improvements in various towns are held up for lack of laborers. The Italian employment agencies report all their resources in men exhausted. The tide in immigrants from French and British Canada has fallen off, and the Irish have ceased to come in any great numbers, for there are very few left in the Emerald Isle to come.

Farm help in Central New England is almost impossible to obtain. The hay crop is being saved by extraordinary exertions only on the part of old people, young men and girls not accustomed to such work. In some New England towns $40 and $45 a month with board is offered for farm help.

The Canadian Northwest wants 100,000 men to save its wheat crop. Where are they all to come from? The wheat must be gathered. The world must not go hungry. Work at every man's disposition is a condition of true prosperity.

The idler and the tramp have no excuse for living. Every man, whether millionaire or ordinary wage earner, should off with his coat when the people's bread is to be made. To be a farm laborer is to be comfort's promoter and civilization's home missionary.

CREST OF HIGH WATER

IT IS THOUGHT THE RIVER WILL NOT GET MUCH HIGHER

It May Rise for Four More Days, but It Is Not Thought It Will Be Much.

The river has reached the 38-foot stage and will rise a few feet more. However, it is not thought that it will go very much higher, probably but little over forty feet.

There is considerable drift wood in the river, and the water is out of the banks in many places on the Illinois shore. The Wabash at Mt. Carmel will probably rise for the next 24 hours, the Tennessee is expected to fall, and the Mississippi, above Cairo, will continue to fall.

CHEAPER FARM LAND.

Southwest Offers Best Opportunities for Securing Homes.

Many farmers in the Northern and Eastern states are selling their high priced lands and locating in the southwest. Many who have been unable to own their homes in the older country are buying land in the new country.

Unusual opportunities exist along the lines of the Missouri Pacific, Iron Mountain Route. The rich, alluvial, delta lands and river-bottom lands of Southeast Missouri, Eastern Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas, capable of producing 60 bushels of corn, a bale of cotton, 4 to 6 tons of alfalfa, 150 bushels of potatoes, and other grains, vegetables and hay crops, can be bought for $7.50 to $15.00 per acre. When cleared and slightly improved will rent for $4.00 to $6.00 per acre cash.

Uplands more rolling, lighter soil, adapted to fruit growing—peaches, pears, plums, grapes, berries—also melons, tomatoes and other vegetables, can be bought for $5.00 to $10.00 per acre in unimproved state. Many places with small clearings and some improvements can be bought very cheap.

This is a fine stock country. No long winter feeding. Free range, pure water mild climate. A healthy, growing country, with a great future.

MOUNT ON TRIAL

CELEBRATED MURDER CASE NOW BEING HEARD.

For the Third Time Is Being Tried for Killing Willis Nutty.

The trial of Willis Mount for the alleged murder of Willis Nutty, on the night of October 18, 1903, in a gambling room over The Stag saloon on North Fourth street between Jefferson and Broadway, is on at the courthouse. The first witness, Dr. Adrian Hoyer, was called to the stand at 2 o'clock.

Mount is alleged to have without provocation shot and killed Nutty, a jockey, and has been tried twice before for the crime. The first trial resulted in a hung jury, and the second in a sentence of 21 years in the penitentiary for manslaughter. By coincidence the alleged murder was committed on a Sunday night, and Mount's conviction came on Sunday, the jury returning the verdict for 21 years on the Sabbath.

There are many witnesses in the case and the trial will last throughout the day and the greater part of tomorrow, it is thought.

Mount is represented by Attorneys Hal Corbett and Eugene Graves, of the city, and Sam Crossland, of Mayfield.

The prosecution is being conducted by Commonwealth Attorney John G. Lovett and County Attorney Alben Barkley.

The work of empanelling a jury began late yesterday afternoon and was completed this forenoon. A special venire of 101 was secured and over 75 excused before the jury was finally drawn.

BOARD OF HEALTH

COMPLAINT TO BE MADE ABOUT THE UNDERTAKERS' TARDINESS.

They Don't Make Prompt Reports of Burials, Says Health Officer Graves.

Dr. W. T. Graves, health officer for the city of Paducah, complains that he cannot enforce the correct degree of discipline among the undertakers in regard to returns to his office of burial reports.

Health Officer Graves states that he is attempting to keep a clear up-to-date record of his departmental business, and in order to do this will have to require all burial reports to come in within a day or two after they have been executed. The city laws prescribe regulations for issuing burial permits for burying and returning the notices, and Health Officer Graves will bring the matter before the proper authorities in the board of health at the next meeting.

"I do not want to complain about anything," he explained, "but really I am greatly hindered in my work in not getting the undertakers to make quick enough returns. They should bring the burial reports to my office and file them not later than the third day. As it is sometimes I get them three weeks after burial, and occasionally a month expires before I get the proper reports. I want the board of health to officially act in the matter and see if more promptness can't be infused into the undertakers."

This is one step towards perfecting the system outlined by the board of health in keeping a close tab on the health of the city. The board expects to do excellent work this season, and wants to make reports from month to month to show what progress is being made.

TAFT ON CANAL

SAYS MATTERS ARE GENERALLY PROGRESSING SATISFACTORILY.

Declares the Only Disquieting News Is a Break in a Reservoir at Colon.

New York, April 4.—Before leaving for Tuskegee, Ala., Monday night Secretary Taft, who came over from Washington to attend the annual meeting of the Panama Railroad company, talked at some length of canal prospects on the isthmus.

"As far as I can learn," he said, "everything is progressing there generally in a highly satisfactory condition. I've no doubt Chief Engineer Stevens has his troubles. These are bound to come, but affairs are in much better shape now than ever before."

"The only disquieting news I have heard is that there has been a break in one of our new reservoirs at Colon. I don't know how serious it is, for I have not received an answer to a message I sent Stevens for particulars. I am in hopes, though, that it can be repaired, for the problem of providing an adequate water supply has presented a great many difficulties. The dry season there is absolutely dry. Not a drop of water falls, and it is essential that an adequate supply be stored against this season. If healthful conditions are to be maintained. How the people manage to survive at all on the isthmus without water storage is one of the wonders that has impressed me most about the isthmus."

"Mr. Stevens and most of his associates have taken up their residence in Culebra, where the conditions are better than at Panama, and are much pleased with the change of location. They have now the advantages of a new town, with architecture suited to the climate, and good sewerage and water systems, as against the heavy buildings, narrow streets and oppressive atmosphere of Panama. But there will be a great improvement in Panama when the wide thoroughfare extending from the railroad station direct through the heart of the city to the harbor, is completed. With the improvements in sewerage and water supply, this thoroughfare will help make life more worth living in that city."

"No, I do not care to state whether, in my opinion, the sea-level or an eighty-five foot canal will be adopted. There is, of course, no necessity for my restating my position, for I am on record, with the president, as favoring the eighty-five foot level. Both Mr. Stevens and myself are anxious that a decision be made soon, in order that the work can be expedited more rapidly than at present."

THE SPENDERS

A TALE OF THE THIRD GENERATION

By HARRY LEON WILSON

Copyright, by Lothrop Publishing Company.

Yet the diversion was not all gambling. There were long sessions at all-night restaurants where the element of chance in his favor, inconspicuous elsewhere, was wholly eliminated; suppers for hungry Thespians and thirsty parasites, protracted with song and talk until the gas-flames grew pale yellow and the cabmen, when the party went out into the wan light, would be low-voiced, confidential and suggestive in their approaches.

Broadway would be weirdly quiet at such times, save for the occasional frenzied clatter of a hurrying milk wagon. Even the cars seemed to move with less sound than by day, and the early-rising workers inside, holding dinner pails and lunch baskets, were subdued and silent, yet strangely observing, as if the hour were one in which the vision was made clear to appraise the values of life justly. To the north, whence the cars bulked silently, would be an awakening sky of such tender beauty that the revelers often paid it the tribute of a moment's notice.

"Pure turquoise," one would declare. "With just a dash of orange bitters in it," another might add.

And then perhaps they burst into song under the spell, blending their voices into what the professional gentlemen termed "barber-shop harmonies," until a policeman would saunter across the street, pretending, however that he was not aware of them.

Then perhaps a ride toward the beautiful northern sky would be proposed, whereupon three or four hansom or coupe loads would begin a journey that wound up through Central park toward the northern light, but which never attained a point remoter than some suburban road house, where sleepy cooks and bartenders would have to be routed out to collaborate toward breakfast.

Often the party fell away into straggling groups with notions for sleep, chanting at last, perhaps: "While beer brings gladness, don't forget That water only makes you wet."

Percival would walk to the hotel sobered and perhaps made a little reflective by the unwanted quiet. But they were pleasant, careless folk, he concluded always. They permitted him to spend his money, but he was quite sure they would spend it as freely as he if they had it. More than one appreciative soubrette, met under such circumstances, was subsequently enabled to laud the sureness of his taste in jewels—he cared little for anything but large diamonds, it transpired.

Under this more or less happy surface of diversion, however, was an experience decidedly less felicitous. He knew he should not, must not, hold Avicé Milbrey in his mind; yet when he tried to put her out it hurt him.

At first he had plumed himself upon his lucky escape that night, when he would have declared his love to her. To have married a girl who cared only for his money; that would have been dire enough. But to marry a girl like that! He had been lucky indeed!

Yet, as the weeks went by the shock of the scene wore off. The scene itself remained clear, with the grinning grotesquerie of the Jack-o'-lanterns lighting it and mocking his simplicity. But the first sharp physical hurt had healed. He was forced to admit that the girl still had power to trouble him. At times his strained nerves would relax to no other device than the picturing of her as his own. Exactly in the measure that he indulged this would his pride smart. With a budding gift for negation he could imagine her caring for nothing but his money; and there was that other picture, swift and awful, a pantomime in shadow, with the leering yellow faces about it.

In the far night, when he awoke to sudden and hungry loneliness, he would let his arms feel their hunger for her. The vision of her would be flowers and music and sunlight and time and all things perfect to mystify and delight, to satisfy and—greatest of all boons—to unsatisfy. The thought of her became a rest house for all weariness; a haven where he was free to choose his nook and lie down away from all that was not her, which was all that was not beautiful. He would go back to seek the lost sweetness of their first meeting; to mount the poor dead belief that she would care for him—that he could make her care for him—and endow the thing with artificial life, trying to capture the faint breath of it; but the memory was always fleeting, attenuated, like the spirit of the memory of a perfume that had been elusive at best. And always, to banish what joy even this poor device might bring, came the more vivid vision of the brutal, sordid facts. He forced himself to face them regularly as a penance and a corrective.

They came before him with especial clearness when he met her from time to time during the winter. He watched her in talk with others, noting the contradiction in her that she would at one moment appear knowing and masterful, with depths of reserve that the other people neither fathomed nor knew of; and at another moment frankly girlish, with an appealing feminine helplessness which is woman's greatest strength, coercing every strong masculine instinct.

When the reserve showed in her, he became afraid. What was she not capable of? In the other mood, frankly appealing, she drew him mightily, so that he abandoned himself for the moment, responding to her fresh exulting youth, longing to take her, to give her things, to make her laugh, to enfold and protect her, to tell her gecrets, to feather her cheek with the softest kiss, to be the child-mate of her.

Toward him, directly, when they met she would sometimes be glacial and forbidding, sometimes uninterestedly frank, as if they were but the best of commonplace friends. Yet sometimes she made him feel that she, too, threw herself heartily to rest in the thought of their loving, and cheated herself, as he did, with dreams of comradeship. She left him at these times with the feeling that they were deaf, dumb and blind to each other; that if some means of communication could be devised, something surer than the invisible play of secret longings, all might yet be well. They talked as the people about them talked, words that meant nothing to either, and if there were mute questionings, naked appeals, unuttered declarations, they were only such as language serves to divert attention from. Speech, doubtless, has its uses as well as its abuses. Politics, for example, would be less entertaining without it. But in matters of the heart, certain it is that there would be fewer misunderstandings if it were forbidden between the couple under the penalty of immediate separation. In this affair real meanings are rarely conveyed except by silences. Words are not more than tasteless drapery to obscure their lines. The silence of lovers is the plainest of all speech, warning, disconcerting indeed, by its very bluntness, any but the truly mated. An hour's silence with these two people by themselves might have worked wonders.

CHAPTER XIII.

THE DISTRESSING ADVENTURE OF MRS. BINES.

The fame of the Bines family for despising money was not fed wholly by Percival's unremitting activities. Miss Psyche Bines, during the winter, achieved wide and enviable renown as a player of bridge whist. Not for the excellence of her play; rather for the inveteracy and size of her losses and the unconcerned cheerfulness with which she defrayed them. She paid the considerable sums with an air of gratitude for having been permitted to lose them. Especially did she seem grateful for the zealous tutelage and chaperonage of Mrs. Drelmer.

"Everybody in New York plays bridge, my dear, and of course you must learn," that capable lady had said in the beginning.

"But I never was bright at cards," the girl confessed, "and I'm afraid I couldn't learn bridge well enough to interest you good players."

"Nonsense!" was Mrs. Drelmer's assurance. "Bridge is easy to learn and easy to play. I'll teach you, and I promise you the people you play with shall never complain."

Mrs. Drelmer, it soon appeared, knew what she was talking about.

Indeed, that well-informed woman was always likely to. Her husband was an intellectual delinquent whom she spoke of largely as being "in Wall street," and in that feat of jugglery known as "keeping up appearances," his wife had long been the more dexterous performer.

She was apt not only to know what she talked about, but she was a woman of resource, unafraid of action. She drilled Miss Bines in the rudiments of bridge. If the teacher became subsequently much the largest winner of the pupil's losses, it was, perhaps, not more than her fit recompense. For Miss Bines enjoyed not only the sport of the game, but her manner of playing it, combined with the social prestige of her amiable sponsor, procured her a circle of acquaintances that would otherwise

Keep Your Nerve

It is nerve energy that runs the organs of your body. The storage battery is the nerve cells in the brain and spinal cord, and from this battery nerve force is sent out through the system of nerves. To keep the body healthy you must have plenty of nerve force; if you have not, the organs work imperfectly, digestion bad, appetite poor, kidneys inactive, and aches, pains and misery are the penalty.

You can keep the system strong with Dr. Miles' Nerve. It assists in generating nerve energy; it strengthens the nerves and makes the whole system strong and vigorous.

"I take pleasure in recommending Dr. Miles' Nerve to those suffering from nervous prostration, insomnia and melancholy. After several months suffering from above diseases I tried this medicine and found immediate relief. It soothes and strengthens the nerves, chases away the gloomy and depressing thoughts and gives the sufferer renewed strength and hope. It is a superb nerve restorer."

A Heavy Load to Carry.

Along with dyspepsia comes nervousness and general ill-health. Why? Because a disordered stomach does not permit the food to be properly digested, and its products assimilated by the system. The blood is charged with poisons which come from this disordered digestion, and in turn the nerves are not fed on good, red blood, and we see symptoms of nervousness, sleeplessness and general breakdown. It is not head work, nor over physical exertion that does it, but poor stomach work. With poor, thin blood the body is not protected against the attack of germs of grip, bronchitis and consumption. To fortify the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—a rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

A little book of extracts from prominent medical authorities extolling every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will be mailed free to any address on request by postal card or letter to the body at once with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—A rare combination of native medicinal roots without a particle of alcohol or dangerous habit-forming drugs.

Many years of active practice convinced Dr. Pierce of the value of many native roots as medicinal agents and he went to great expense, both in time and in money, to perfect his own peculiar processes for rendering them both efficient and safe for tonic, alterative and rebuilding agents.

The enormous popularity of "Golden Medical Discovery" is due both to its scientific compounding and to the actual medicinal value of its ingredients. The publication of the names of the ingredients on the wrapper of every bottle sold, gives full assurance of its non-alcoholic character and removes all objection to the use of an unknown or secret remedy. It is not a patent medicine nor a secret one either. This fact puts it in a class all by itself, bearing as it does upon every bottle wrapper the Badge of Honesty, in the list of its ingredients.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" cures, weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver and biliousness, ulceration of stomach and bowels and all catarrhal affections no matter what parts or organs may be affected with it. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original little liver pills, first put up 40 years ago. They regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. Much imitated but never equalled. Sugar-coated and easy to take as candy. One to three a dose.

have remained considerably narrower. An enthusiastic player of bridge, of passable exterior, mediocre skill, and unlimited resources, need never want in New York for very excellent society. Not only was the western girl received by Mrs. Drelmer's immediate circle, but more than one member of what the lady called "that snubby set" would now and then make a place for her at the card-table. A few of Mrs. Drelmer's intimates were so wanting in good taste as to intimate that she exploited Miss Bines even to the degree of an understanding expressed in bald percentage, with certain of those to whom she secured the girl's society at cards. Whether this ill-natured gossip was true or false, it is certain that the exigencies of life on next to nothing a year, with a husband who could boast of next to nothing but family, had developed an unerring business sense in Mrs. Drelmer; and certain it also is that this winter was one when the appearances with which she had to strive were unwontedly buoyant.

Miss Bines tirelessly memorized rules. She would disclose to her placid mother that the lead of a trump to the third hand's go-over of hearts is of doubtful expediency; or that one must "follow suit with the smallest," except when you have only two, neither of them better than the Jack. Then play the higher first, so that when the lower falls your partner may know you are out of the suit, and ruff it.

Mrs. Bines declared that it did seem to her very much like out-and-out gambling. But Percival, looking over the stubs of his sister's check-book, warmly protested her innocence of this charge.

"Heaven knows Sis has her shortcomings," he observed, patronizingly, in that young woman's presence, "but she's no gambler; don't say it, ma, I beg of you! She only knows five rules of the game, and I judge it's cost her about $5,000 each to learn those. And the only one she never forgets is: 'When in doubt, lead your highest check.' But don't ever accuse her of gambling. Poor girl, if she keeps on playing bridge she'll have writer's cramp; that's all I'm afraid of. I see there's a new rapid-fire check-book on the market, and an improved fountain pen that doesn't slobber. I'll have to get her one of each."

Yet Psyche Bines' experience, like her brother's, was not without a proper leaven of sentiment. There was Fred Milbrey, handsome, clever, amusing, knowing everyone, and giving her a pleasant sense of intimacy with all that was worth while in New York. Him she felt very friendly to.

Then there was Mauburn, presently to be Lord Casselthorpe, with his lazy, high-pitched drawl; good-natured, frank, carrying an atmosphere of high-class British worldliness, and delicately awakening within her while she was with him a sense of her own latent superiority to the institutions of her native land. She liked Mauburn, too.

DOWIE GETS BUSY.

Dismissing the Men Who Deposed and Dethroned Him.

Ocotlan, Mexico, April 4.—A statement was made by John Alexander Dowie. He says he has treated with contempt the powerless allegations of his opposition by six of his overseers, headed by Voliva, that he has officially dismissed Overseers Voliva, Piper, Exell, Brasfield, Cattel, Spiecher, and has cancelled Voliva's power of attorney; has dismissed Granger from the office of general financial manager; has appointed Deacon Fielding Wilhite as Granger's successor and has taken necessary legal steps to protect his estate and interests of Zion.

He will probably give further information and meanwhile asks his friends throughout the world not to be anxious concerning Zion or himself.

Voliva Takes Dowie's Home.

Muskegon, Mich., April 4.—A deed transferring John Alexander Dowie's $200,000 summer home on White Lake near here to Deacon Alexander Granger was recorded here. The deed bears the power of attorney for Dowie and wife to the new ruler of Zion City, W. G. Voliva.

NO MORE ASTHMA.

New Method of Treatment May Stamp It Out Entirely.

New York, April 4.—Advanced medical specialists have proven beyond a doubt that asthma, catarrh, bronchitis and hay fever are constitutional diseases, and must be treated by an internal remedy. This fact has been successfully demonstrated in obstinate cases by the use of ascatoc a recent Austrian discovery in medical science, which attacks these diseases constitutionally, and permanently eradicates them.

As so many permanent cures have resulted from the ascatoc treatment, the Austrian dispensary, 32 West 26th street New York City, will send a free trial by mail, on request, in order that every person suffering from these diseases may test its virtue.

RETURNS TO FIRST HUSBY.

Woman Leaves Third Husband to Return to First One.

Savannah, Ga., April 4.—After being separated from his wife eighteen years, J. D. McEwen has returned to find that she, thinking him dead, married twice during his absence. When McEwen was 18 he eloped in 1887 with Miss Alice Goody, aged 14. After two years they were separated. Mrs. McEwen, believing her husband dead, married N. E. Johnson, with whom she lived fifteen years. Johnson died in 1904 and a year later she married A. G. Sarsen. When Mrs. McEwen learned her first husband was alive she left Sarsen and went to her first husband.

A Dandy for Burns.

Dr. Bergin Pana, Ill., writes: "I have used Ballard's Snow Liniment; always recommend it to my friends, as I am confident there is no better made. 'It is a dandy for burns.' Victim of Hydrophobia.

Covington, Ky., April 4.—John Burnside, a farmer of Kenton county, and uncle of Tom Burnside, post master of Visalia, died Tuesday morning after 24 hours of agony of hydrophobia. ANOTHER BUSY DAY IN THE COURTS

Much More "Doings" in Circuit and Fiscal Bodies

Dr. J. E. Young Elected County Physician This Forenoon By the Justices.

BEAUTIFY COURTHOUSE YARD

Fiscal Court.

The county tax rate was decided on yesterday afternoon by fiscal board after much debating, and a deadlock in voting. County Judge Lightfoot found it necessary to cast the deciding vote, one for a decrease of 5 cents.

The rate last year was 80 cents, a reduction of two cents from the rate of the preceding year. The magistrates differed and debated at length on the rate. Finally a vote was taken on a reduction of five cents and resulted in a tie vote. Justices Broadfoot, Bleich, Emery and Knott favoring the reduction and Justices Burnett, Lane, Gholson and Thompson opposing. They wanted the 80 cent rate.

Judge Lightfoot, who in such emergencies is entitled to the deciding vote, cast his ballot in favor of the reduction. The rate was then fixed at 75 cents on the $100.

The distribution is as follows: Sinking fund, 29 cents. County levy fund, 21 cents. Pauper fund, 5 cents. County road fund, 20 cents. Total, 75 cents.

The reduction means a saving of fully $5,000 to the taxpayers.

The county poll tax was fixed at $1.50 per head.

The following allowances were made: Lendler & Lydon, $18; Robert Wilkins, $921.12; W. A. Lawrence, $8; M. J. Michelson, $5; Frank Eaker, $268; John Ogilvie, $410.20; Hiram Smedley, $354.65; James Eaker, $676.70.

Quarterly salaries were allowed as follows:

Judge Lightfoot, $437; County Attorney Alben Barkley, $250; County Commissioner R. J. Barber, $50; County School Superintendent Sam J. Billington, $200; County Physician J. W. Pendley, $150; County Clerk Hiram Smedley, $50 for services as clerk of fiscal court.

Morning Session.

The board met this morning at 8:30 o'clock and took up the matter of improving the court house and yard. The board gave County Judge R. T. Lightfoot authority to manage the courthouse yard as he saw fit for the year 1906 and in the way of suggestion, authorized the fence torn down and replaced by a curb of cement such as is built about the High school property on Broadway. The board also ordered the courthouse painted on the outside and authorized the committee to refurnish the county court room.

Criminal Docket.

Continuances were granted in the forfeiture cases against L. L. Nelson and Sam Story.

The case against Harry Phillips, white, for the alleged theft of a diamond was continued.

The case against Jim M. Elliott, white, alleging forgery of his mother-in-law's name to an instrument of writing, was continued.

Charles Lee, colored, was given one year in the penitentiary for stealing harness and selling it as his own. He is the negro boy who did a wholesale harness stealing business this past winter.

Dan Willis, Thomas Herndon, Jas. L. Weston, E. C. Clark and A. B. Sowell were excused as petit jurors, and R. E. Parris, J. W. Hobbs, G. T. Moss, John A. Williamson and W. J. White substituted.

Equity Docket.

In the case of Wright & Taylor against H. A. Douglas, a judgment for $74 was filed.

The Grand Jury's Work.

The grand jury returned three more indictments yesterday afternoon against defendants now in jail. They are:

George Brown, colored, grand larceny. He is alleged to have stolen two suits of clothes from the Weilerstein delivery wagon.

Jim Bradshaw, colored, burglary. He is alleged to have entered the residence of S. P. Ragsdale.

Charles Lee, colored, obtaining money by false pretenses by stealing harness from H. Wallerstein, white, and selling it to Lem Jones, colored, as his own.

Police Court.

A night session of police court was held last night, probably the first in many years, but it lasted only a few minutes.

C. E. Sweatman, white, of Cincinnati, who is alleged to be a representative of a leather concern in his city, was charged with trying to get men away from two local leather shops to go to Cincinnati to work for his firm, which is now idle because of a strike. The attorneys compromised the case, and Sweatman agreed to leave the city and not interfere any more.

There were three offenders before Special Police Judge D. A. Cross this morning.

James Clawson, the negro who attacked the Cairo passenger train porter, was charged with malicious cutting and drunkenness, too, and is being held pending arrival of a warrant from Cairo. He will be tried on the charge of being a fugitive from justice.

"Hobo" Kelley, white was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Jim Carr, white, was fined $1 and costs for being drunk.

Committee Named.

President Geo. McBroom, of the council, appointed Councilmen Van Meter, Kolb and Katterjohn a committee to meet with a committee to be selected from the aldermen to revise rules regarding the passage of ordinances through the municipal boards.

Laid Up Sick.

Lieutenant Tom Potter, of the police force, is suffering from rheumatism. He was taken ill with a chill several days ago, but later developed rheumatism. Detective Will Baker is standing his watch regularly.

Held for Cutting.

John Clawson, colored, of Evansville, was arrested at the I. C. depot last night at 8:45 o'clock when the Cairo train pulled into the station, and is being held pending action of the Illinois authorities.

Clawson cut Dan Adams, colored, porter on the Cairo-Paducah accommodation train, last night just after the train left Cairo, but before it left Illinois. Clawson with two other negroes boarded the train and only he had a ticket. Conductor Bob Dawes had just collected it and was threatening to put the others off if they did not pay money or a ticket when Adams came through the train. Clawson, without a word, pulled a knife and cut the porter severely on the cheek.

The negro was overpowered and locked in one part of the coach until Paducah was reached. At the depot here he broke the window and escaped but was arrested again by Officers Hurley and Singery a short distance from the depot. Adams went down today to secure a warrant against Clawson.

The report that Conductor Robert Dawes was cut and seriously wounded in the fight to overpower the negro proved erroneous.

County Physician Elected.

The salary of county physician was fixed at the same figures, $600, and the board went into a caucus to discuss the candidates. Drs. L. Edwin Young, of the county; Dr. Vernon Blythe, Dr. J. W. Pendley and Dr. B. T. Hall, of the city, were applicants. The board after the caucus presented the name of Dr. L. Edwin Young, with recommendations for election, and he was elected unanimously.

Dr. Young is the son-in-law of Justice Gholson and studied in Paducah under Dr. Frank Boyd. He is a graduate of the Louisville Medical college and has a large practice in the county.

The matter of closing the deal for the sale of the county poor farm property, the release of the lien, etc., were left to the committee, which was given instructions relative to the matter.

The matter of advertising for bids for county road improvements was left to the discretion of County Road Supervisor Bert Johnson.

Judge Lightfoot and Treasurer J. C. Utterback were authorized to borrow not more than $15,000 to use in county road work until the tax collections are in.

Adjournment was taken at 11:30 until 2 o'clock this afternoon at which time several other matters may come up. The board will finally adjourn, it is stated, this afternoon.

Magistrate's Sale.

Constable A. C. Shelton yesterday sold the stock of H. A. Douglas, of South Third street, to satisfy debts. The stock, fixtures, etc., brought $870, and was bought by several different persons. The proceeds will not cover the debts against the defendant, it is said.

Bankruptcy Court.

Referee in Bankruptcy E. W. Bagby returned last night from Wickliffe where he attended the first meeting of creditors in the matter of Ocie Moore, petitioner in bankruptcy. The creditors were represented by counsel and on motion Dr. Mesheew was appointed trustee and required to give a $2,000 bond. The assets of the bankrupt are about $3,000.

In the case of W. B. Lax & Co., of Lax, Calloway county, a dividend of $400 was declared this morning. The Hessig bankruptcy case came before the court again this morning. The bankrupt had filed exceptions to the trustees' report of sale of distillery property, but the exceptions were overruled and the deed from Phil Stephon to H. Well & Co., ratified with the sale of the property by the trustees.

NO DUAL TELEPHONE.

Evansville Council Decides That the Single System is Good Enough.

Manager A. L. Joynes, of the local branch Cumberland Telephone company, today received the news of the defeat of the independent company in Evansville, Ind. where the telephone war has attracted a great deal of attention for several months.

The town was divided relative to the granting of an independent company a franchise to do business. The matter was referred to a committee in the municipal boards, and the committee recommended that the application for a franchise be returned down—that no dual system be inaugurated. The boards ratified the report and the independent company will not go into Evansville.

The Cumberland people were in litigation with the city several months ago, but has settled its difference and is at peace.

COULDN'T FIND A SUBJECT.

Chief Collins Made Fruitless Efforts in a Good Cause.

Chief of Police James Collins this morning received a letter from a sanitarium which proposes to effect a permanent cure for alcoholism at home, and is thinking seriously of starting the ball to rolling among local topers.

Chief Collins referred the letter first to one and then another about the hall, and pretty soon the envelope was marked with notes of reference. It seemed that no one wanted to accept the proposition. The letter briefly states the methods employed in the work and suggesting that the chief take up the matter with confirmed drinkers who are prominent in court.

The letter will be filed away for reference among the records of police court, more for curiosity than any serious object.

KILLED BY TRAIN.

Fine Horse Is Killed Near Maxon Mills Last Night.

F. J. Reynold's fine horse was left standing unattended last night near the railroad station at Maxon's Mills, and the animal became frightened and ran away.

The horse made straight for the railroad station where a party of residents were standing waiting for the coming of the passenger train. Fortunately a post prevented the horse from running into the crowd, and when the dust cleared the buggy was found hung up on the post.

The horse with harness flying ran down the railroad track and was struck by the fast flying train and killed.

Lost Leg by Trimming Corn.

Lexington, Ky., April 4.—John Nugent, who underwent an operation about a week ago at St. Joseph's hospital, having his foot taken off, was again operated upon today for the same trouble.

Some time ago Mr. Nugent experienced some little trouble with a corn on his great toe. He tried to remedy it by trimming it with a knife and blood poisoning resulted. At first his toe was taken off, but the poison had gained such headway that it was found necessary to remove the foot.

The bone of his leg has become affected and the leg will be taken off above the knee in hopes of saving his life.

Church Filled to Overflowing.

The revival at the Second Baptist church is increasing in interest, and the congregation was too large last night for every one to get in the church. The Rev. Farrar took for his text last night "The Greatest Pardonable Sin," and preached a strong sermon from the text. There have been twenty-five conversions, and the meetings held every day at the I. C. shops are increasing in interest. Services are held at 3 p. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Omaha, Neb., April 4.—Elections were held in all the cities and towns in Nebraska Tuesday except Omaha and Lincoln, which operate under special charters. Only straight partisan contest in the state was South Omaha, where Thomas Hector, for mayor, and the whole democratic ticket were elected. The local issues only were involved in most towns license question being most common. The results are mixed.

CHICAGO CAN OWN BUT NOT OPERATE RAILWAYS.

The $1,000 Saloon License Advocates Were Largely Returned to the Council.

Chicago, April 4.—Under the result of the city election held yesterday, in which the question of municipal ownership of street railways was the vital issue, Chicago can proceed to acquire and control the railway but cannot operate them.

At the same time the voters, while declaring that the city shall not operate the railroads declared that as question of public policy it would be desirable for the city to do so.

Mayor Dunne, construed the passage of the $75,000,000 certificate and public policy propositions as a victory for municipal ownership but expressed his disappointment over the defeat of the proposition for municipal operation.

Of the thirty-five aldermen elected today Mayor Dunne claims that nineteen are avowed champions of municipal ownership. The faction opposed to municipal ownership declares that they still hold the control of the council.

Besides municipal ownership the issue was made in many aldermanic contests of whether the saloon licenses be $500 or $1,000. The low figure was in existence to March 5 when the council passed a bill raising them to $1,000. Of the fifteen men against the raise twelve were elected and three defeated. Of the nine aldermen up for re-election who voted for the continuance of low licenses all were re-elected.

There is little danger, however, that the high license will be repealed.

Votes in several wards were so close that probably it will take an official canvass to determine the result, but the probabilities are that republicans will have a majority of three or four.

The old council consisted of thirty-seven republicans, thirty-two democrats and one independent.

A BOGUS COUNT

BIGAMIST BELIEVED TO HAVE DUPED MANY WOMEN.

Was Hypnotist and Collected Large Amounts From the Ones Under His "Spell."

Chicago, April 4.—Leaving a trail of broken hearted wives and women victims whom he had swindled out of sums amounting to $50,000 by the use of hypnotic and magnetic power and mysterious powders, Count Frank E. De la Creale, alias Dr. Reed, Dr. Quill, Dr. Creal and Dr. Abbott, who claims to be a French count and the owner of $25,000,000 worth of gold mines in Mexico is being sought by the police on a charge of attempted poisoning, swindling and conspiracy.

Two wives of this adventurer, whom the police claim is a second Johann Hoch, of a higher order of intelligence, have already been found and there are said to be three more women whom he has married in the past year, besides scores of others.

The latest victim of the versatile swindler was Miss Ina Triquet, daughter of a prominent French family, formerly of Paris but now of New York. In the space of three months Dr. De la Creale, as he called himself, secured from Miss Triquet $15,000 in cash and diamonds and jewels valued at $5,000. Miss Triquet told the police last night that she was penniless.

Mrs. De la Creale, No. 1, who also claims to have been the victim of the swindler, resides at 2554 Prairie avenue. She was arrested last night by Lieutenant Mulcahy, of the Stanton avenue police, who believes that she knows more of her swindling operations and bigamous marriages than she has yet told.

When the two wives of the swindler met in the Stanton avenue police station Mrs. De la Creale No. 2 suddenly leaned toward the other woman and gasped, "That is my diamond and opal ring you have on your finger," at the same time pointing dramatically to a jeweled ring which glistened on Mrs. De la Creale's hand.
